

Josh Howlett, The University of Bristol

Josh Howlett works in the Networking team at the University of Bristol. His interests are authentication and authorisation, particularly in the mobility and middleware contexts.

For the last eighteen months he has helped develop UKERNA's "JANET Roaming Service" (JRS), the UK's implementation of eduroam. He now leads the JRS Technical Support team, providing technical assistance to UK Institutions participating in the JRS.