

Archival Sound Recordings; audio escapes the archive

The Archival Sound Recording Project Manager is responsible for the online delivery of 4000 hours of audio recordings from the holdings of the British Library Sound Archive to teachers, learners and researchers. Digital encodings will be delivered as streamed and downloadable media and are to be wrapped in METS. Content ranges from previously unpublished African field recordings to a teaching set of 400 Popular Music Tracks.